Total expenses-Operation and maintenance of plant

2016: Total expenses-Operation and maintenance of plant

Operations and maintenance - An expense category that includes expenses for operations established to provide service and maintenance related to campus grounds and facilities used for educational and general purposes. Specific expenses include: janitorial and utility services; repairs and ordinary or normal alterations of buildings, furniture, and equipment; care of grounds; maintenance and operation of buildings and other plant facilities; security; earthquake and disaster preparedness; safety; hazardous waste disposal; property, liability, and all other insurance relating to property; space and capital leasing; facility planning and management; and central receiving. This expense does include amounts charged to auxiliary enterprises, hospitals, and independent operations. Also includes information technology expenses related to operation and maintenance of plant activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources (otherwise these expenses are included in institutional support). FASB institutions are required to allocate O&M costs to other functional categories (e.g., instruction, research, etc.) while GASB institutions can allocate O&M costs OR report it as a separate functional category. In an effort to align FASB and GASB O&M expenses, from FY 2010 to FY 2015, O&M was reported as both a functional and natural expense category in IPEDS, causing its total to be equal to zero. However, beginning with FY 2016, both FASB and GASB institutions are required to allocate O&M to all the functions and report it as a natural expense category. Prior to fiscal year 2016 this variable would always be equal to zero. Like other natural classification categories OM was reported for all expense functions (survey column 4) . Unlike other natural classification categories OM also appeared as a function (line 11). Institutions would report positive values of salaries and wages, benefits, depreciation, interest and other expenses on the OM (survey line 11). However total OM line 11 column 1 was always zero and negative values were reported in the intersection of line 11 and column 4 to balance out the total of all expenses of OM distributed to the functional categories. 2006-2019: Endowment assets (year end) per FTE enrollment (FASB)

Endowment assets (year end) per FTE enrollment for public and private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Endowment assets (year end) (F2H02) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Endowment assets are gross investments of endowment funds, term endowment funds, and funds functioning as endowment for the institution and any of its foundations and other affiliated organizations. Endowment funds are funds whose principal is nonexpendable (true endowment) and that are intended to be invested to provide earnings for institutional use. Term endowment funds are funds which the donor has stipulated that the principal may be expended after a stated period or on the occurrence of a certain event. Funds functioning as endowment (quasi-endowment funds) are established by the governing board to function like an endowment fund but which may be totally expended at any time at the discretion of the governing board. These funds represent nonmandatory transfers from the current fund rather than a direct addition to the endowment fund, as occurs for the true endowment categories. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). For more information see the variable description for 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment (info link) under frequently used\ 12-month enrollment.

2006-2023: Equity ratio (FASB)

Equity ratio for public and private-not-for profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Total net assets (F2A06) divided by total assets (F2A02) Net assets are the excess of assets over liabilities or the residual interest in the institution's assets remaining after liabilities are deducted. The change in net assets results from revenues, gains, expenses, and losses. FASB institutions classify net assets into three categories: permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, and unrestricted. GASB institutions classify net assets into three categories: invested in capital, net of related debt; restricted (with separate displays of restricted-expendable and restricted-nonexpendable net assets); and unrestricted. Although the terms are similar, the composition of the categories of net assets between FASB and GASB institutions can differ significantly. Total assets include a) Cash, cash equivalents, and temporary investments; b) Receivables (net of allowance for uncollectible amounts); c) Inventories, prepaid expenses, and deferred charges; d) Amounts held by trustees for construction and debt service; e) Long-term investments; f) Plant, property, and equipment; and, g) Other assets

2006-2019: Revenues from government grants and contracts per FTE (FASB)

Revenues from govenment grants and contracts per FTE enrollment for public and private-not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Government grants and contracts is equal to the sum of Federal grants and contracts (F2D05), State grants and contracts (F2D06), and local grants and contracts (F2D07). Government grants and contract revenues is then divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Government grants and contracts (revenues) - Revenues from governmental agencies that are for specific research projects, other types of programs , or for general institutional operations (if not government appropriations). Examples are research projects, training programs, student financial assistance, and similar activities for which amounts are received or expenses are reimbursable under the terms of a grant or contract, including amounts to cover both direct and indirect expenses. Includes Pell Grants and reimbursement for costs of administering federal financial aid programs. Grants and contracts should be classified to identify the governmental level - federal, state, or local - funding the grant or contract to the institution; grants and contracts from other sources are classified as nongovernmental grants and contracts. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions’ FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). For more information see the variable description for 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment (info link) under frequently used\ 12-month enrollment.

2006-2019: Instruction expenses per FTE (FASB)

Instruction expenses per FTE enrollment for public and private-not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Instruction expenses (F2E011) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Instruction - A functional expense category that includes expenses of the colleges, schools, departments, and other instructional divisions of the institution and expenses for departmental research and public service that are not separately budgeted. Includes general academic instruction, occupational and vocational instruction, community education, preparatory and adult basic education, and regular, special, and extension sessions. Also includes expenses for both credit and non-credit activities. Excludes expenses for academic administration where the primary function is administration (e.g., academic deans). Information technology expenses related to instructional activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources are included (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support). FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest, but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). For more information see the variable description for 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment (info link) under frequently used\ 12-month enrollment.

2006-2023: Institutional support expenses as a percent of total core expenses (FASB)

Institutional support expenses as a percent of total core expenses for public and private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Institutional support expenses (F2E061) divided by total core expenses (F2COREXP) Institutional support - A functional expense category that includes expenses for the day-to-day operational support of the institution. Includes expenses for general administrative services, central executive-level activities concerned with management and long range planning, legal and fiscal operations, space management, employee personnel and records, logistical services such as purchasing and printing, and public relations and development. Also includes information technology expenses related to institutional support activities. If an institution does not separately budget and expense information technology resources, the costs associated with student services and operation and maintenance of plant will also be applied to this function. FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest, but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense.

Definitions by release year

2006-2019: Revenues from investment return per FTE (FASB)

Revenues from investment return per FTE enrollment for public and private-not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Investment return revenues (F2D10) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Investment return - Income from assets including dividends, interest earnings, royalties, rent, gains (losses) etc. Assets - Physical items (tangible) or rights (intangible) that have value and that are owned by the institution. Assets are useful to the institution because they are a source of future services or because they can be used to secure future benefits Interest - The price paid (or received) for the use of money over a period of time. Interest income is one component of investment income. Interest paid by the institution is interest expense. Gains - Increases in the institution's net assets from peripheral or incidental transactions. This is in contrast to revenues, which occur from the institution's ongoing major or central operations. Whether a transaction generates revenue or a gain depends on the relationship of the transaction to the institution's activities. For example, the sale of computers by a college store might be part of ongoing central activities, while the sale of surplus computers from administrative offices might be considered otherwise. Losses - Decreases in net assets from an organization's peripheral or incidental transactions and other events affecting the organization, other than those that result from expenses. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions’ FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). 2006-2009: Other core revenues per FTE (FASB)

Revenues from other core revenue sources per FTE enrollment for public and private-not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows. Other core revenues is equal to the sum of: Federal appropriations (F2D02) State appropriations (F2D03) Local appropriations (F2D04) Contributions from affiliated entities (F2D09) Sales and services of educational activities (F2D11) Other revenues (F2D15) Other core revenues is then divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN)) The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions’ FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). For more information see the variable description for 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment (info link) under frequently used\ 12-month enrollment. For glossary definitions of the above finance terms see variables listed under the Finance survey.

2010-2019: Other core revenues per FTE (FASB)

2006-2019: Public service expenses per FTE (FASB)

Public service expenses per FTE enrollment for public and private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Public service expenses (F2E031) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Public service (expense) - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities established primarily to provide noninstructional services beneficial to individuals and groups external to the institution. Examples are conferences, institutes, general advisory service, reference bureaus, and similar services provided to particular sectors of the community. This function includes expenses for community services, cooperative extension services, and public broadcasting services. Also includes information technology expenses related to the public service activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support). FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest, but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). 2005-2010: Account for Pell grants as pass through transactions or as federal grant revenues to the institution?

Does your institution account for Pell grants as pass through transactions (a simple payment on the student's account) or as federal grant revenues to the institution? Pell Grants: under FASB standards institutions have the option to report Pell grants as federal revenue and scholarships (or allowances) or as a pass-through transaction, essentially a payment on the student's account. The latter option is sometimes referred to as an agency transaction. Please indicate whether the institution accounts for Pell grants as pass-through payments or as federal revenue. If the institution does not award Pell grants, select the applicable option.

2006-2009: Revenues from private gifts, grants, and contracts per FTE (FASB)

Revenues from private gifts, grants, and contracts per FTE enrollment for public and private-not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Private gifts, grants, and contract revenues (F2D08) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Private gifts, grants and contracts (revenues) Revenues from private donors for which no legal consideration is involved and from private contracts for specific goods and services provided to the funder as stipulation for receipt of the funds. Includes only those gifts, grants, and contracts that are directly related to instruction, research, public service, or other institutional purposes. Includes monies received as a result of gifts, grants, or contracts from a foreign government. Also includes the estimated dollar amount of contributed services. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). For more information see the variable description for 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment (info link) under frequently used\ 12-month enrollment.

Revenues from private gifts, grants, and contracts and contributions from affiliated entitiesper FTE enrollment for public and private-not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Private gifts, grants, and contract revenues (F2D08) plus Contributions from affiliated entities(F2D09) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Private gifts, grants and contracts (revenues) Revenues from private donors for which no legal consideration is involved and from private contracts for specific goods and services provided to the funder as stipulation for receipt of the funds. Includes only those gifts, grants, and contracts that are directly related to instruction, research, public service, or other institutional purposes. Includes monies received as a result of gifts, grants, or contracts from a foreign government. Also includes the estimated dollar amount of contributed services. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). 2006-2019: Research expenses per FTE (FASB)

Research expenses per FTE enrollment for public and private-not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Research expenses (F2E021) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Research (expense) - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities specifically organized to produce research outcomes and commissioned by an agency either external to the institution or separately budgeted by an organizational unit within the institution. The category includes institutes and research centers, and individual and project research. This function does not include nonresearch sponsored programs (e.g., training programs). Also included are information technology expenses related to research activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support.) FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation & maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation & maintenance of plant or interest but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. 2006-2019: Student service expenses per FTE (FASB)

Student services expenses per FTE enrollment for public and private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Student service expenses (F1E051) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Student services (expenses) - A functional expense category that includes expenses for admissions, registrar activities, and activities whose primary purpose is to contribute to students emotional and physical well - being and to their intellectual, cultural, and social development outside the context of the formal instructional program. Examples include student activities, cultural events, student newspapers, intramural athletics, student organizations, supplemental instruction outside the normal administration, and student records. Intercollegiate athletics and student health services may also be included except when operated as self - supporting auxiliary enterprises. Also may include information technology expenses related to student service activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources(otherwise these expenses are included in institutional support.) FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). For more information see the variable description for 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment (info link) under frequently used\ 12-month enrollment.

2016-2023: Salaries and wages for academic support as a percent of total expenses for academic support (FASB)

Salaries and wages for academic support as a percent of total expenses for academic support for public and private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Salaries and wage expenses for academic support (F2E042) divided by total expenses for academic support (F2E041). Academic support A functional expense category that includes expenses of activities and services that support the institution's primary missions of instruction, research, and public service. It includes the retention, preservation, and display of educational materials (for example, libraries, museums, and galleries); organized activities that provide support services to the academic functions of the institution (such as a demonstration school associated with a college of education or veterinary and dental clinics if their primary purpose is to support the instructional program); media such as audiovisual services; academic administration (including academic deans but not department chairpersons); and formally organized and separately budgeted academic personnel development and course and curriculum development expenses. Also included are information technology expenses related to academic support activities; if an institution does not separately budget and expense information technology resources, the costs associated with the three primary programs will be applied to this function and the remainder to institutional support. Under FASB standards this includes actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. Under GASB standards this does not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest but may include depreciation expense. Salaries and wages are the amounts paid as compensation for services to all employees--faculty, staff, part time, full time, regular employees, and student employees. 2016-2023: Salaries and wages for other core expense functions as a percent of total expenses for other core expense functions (FASB)

Salaries and wages for other core expense functions as a percent of total expenses for other core expense functions for public and private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Salaries and wage expenses (F2E082) for net grant aid to students, are added to salaries and wage expenses (F2E122) for other expense functions. The sum is then divided total other core expenses which is the sum of total expenses for net grant aid to students (F2E081) and other expenses (F2E121). Net grant aid to students (expenses) is the portion of scholarships and fellowships granted by an institution that exceeds the amount applied to institutional charges such as tuition and fees or room and board. The amount reported as expense excludes allowances. Other expenses (F2E121) is a generated expense category on the finance component that is an expense that cannot be included in the core expense functions (instruction, research, public service, academic support, student services, institutional support and net grant aid to students) or the noncore expense functions(auxilary enterprises, hospitals and independant operations).

2016-2023: Salaries and wages for public service as a percent of total expenses for public service (FASB)

Salaries and wages for public service as a percent of total expenses for public service for public private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Salaries and wage expenses for public service (F2E032) divided by total expenses for public service (F2E031). Public service (expense) - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities established primarily to provide noninstructional services beneficial to individuals and groups external to the institution. Examples are conferences, institutes, general advisory service, reference bureaus, and similar services provided to particular sectors of the community. This function includes expenses for community services, cooperative extension services, and public broadcasting services. Also includes information technology expenses related to the public service activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support). FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest, but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. Salaries and wages are the amounts paid as compensation for services to all employees--faculty, staff, part time, full time, regular employees, and student employees. This includes regular or periodic payment to a person for the regular or periodic performance of work or a service and payment to a person for more sporadic performance of work or a service (overtime, extra compensation, summer compensation, bonuses, sick or annual leave, etc.). Total expenses include expenses from salaries, wages, employee fringe benefits,operations of plant, depreciation, interest and other expenses.

2006-2019: Revenues from tuition and fees per FTE (FASB)

Revenues from tuition and fees per FTE enrollment for public and private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Tuition and fees revenues (F2D01) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Tuition and fees (revenues) (F2D01) - Revenues from all tuition and fees assessed against students (net of refunds and discounts and allowances) for educational purposes. If tuition or fees are remitted to the state as an offset to the state appropriation, the total of such tuition or fees are deducted from the total state appropriation and added to the total for tuition and fees. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). 2014-2023: Accumulated depreciation Accumulated depreciation is the total depreciation charged as expenses as of the reporting date (in the current year and in prior years) on the capital assets of the institution. FASB Statement No. 117 and GASB Statement No. 34 require that accumulated depreciation to date be recognized. NOTE: When a capital asset is removed from the accounting records due to disposal or end of the asset's useful life, the depreciation accumulated through the years on the asset is also removed from the records.

2014-2019: Academic support expenses per FTE (for-profit institutions)

Academic support expenses per FTE enrollment for private for-profit institutions is derived as follows: Academic support (F3E03A1) expenses divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Academic support A functional expense category that includes expenses of activities and services that support the institution's primary missions of instruction, research, and public service. It includes the retention, preservation, and display of educational materials (for example, libraries, museums, and galleries); organized activities that provide support services to the academic functions of the institution (such as a demonstration school associated with a college of education or veterinary and dental clinics if their primary purpose is to support the instructional program); media such as audiovisual services; academic administration (including academic deans but not department chairpersons); and formally organized and separately budgeted academic personnel development and course and curriculum development expenses. Also included are information technology expenses related to academic support activities; if an institution does not separately budget and expense information technology resources, the costs associated with the three primary programs will be applied to this function and the remainder to institutional support. Under Private for-profit standards this includes actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. Under GASB standards this does not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest but may include depreciation expense. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). For more information see the variable description for 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment (info link) under frequently used\ 12-month enrollment.

2014-2023: Federal grants and contracts

Federal grants and contracts includes all revenues from federal agencies that are for specific undertakings such as research projects, training projects, and similar activities. Includes federal Pell and similar student aid grants when they are treated as student aid expenses when awarded to the student. If federal Pell and similar student aid grants are treated as agency transactions in general purpose financial statements, they are excluded from this amount.

2004-2013: Research and public service

Research includes expenses for activities specifically organized to produce research outcomes and either commissioned by an agency external to the institution or separately budgeted by an organizational unit within the institution. The category includes institutes and research center, and individual and project research. Does not include nonresearch sponsored programs (e.g., training programs). Public service includes expenses specifically for public service and for activities established primarily to provide non-instructional services beneficial to groups external to the institution. Examples are seminars and projects provided to the particular sectors of the community. Includes expenses for community services, cooperative extension services and public broadcasting services.

2004-2013: Auxiliary enterprises

Auxiliary enterprises are expenses for essentially self-supporting operations of the institution that exist to furnish a service to students, faculty, or staff, and that charge a fee that is directly related to, although not necessarily equal to, the cost of the service. Examples are residence halls, food services, student health services, intercollegiate athletics (only if essentially self-supporting), college unions, college stores, faculty and staff parking, and faculty housing. Also included are depreciation related to auxiliary enterprises (if separately assigned by the institution). FASB institutions also charge or allocate interest expense to auxiliary enterprises.

NET GRANT AID TO STUDENTS (Expenses) Scholarship and fellowship student financial aid treated as an expense because the institution incurs an incremental expense in the provision of a good or service. Thus, payments made to students or third parties in support of the total cost of education are expenses if those payments are made for goods and services NOT provided by the institution. Examples include payments for services to third parties (including students) for off-campus housing or for the cost of board provided by institutional contract meal plans.

2004-2013: Total expenses

Total expenses are the outflow or other using up of assets or incurrence of liabilities (or a combination of both) from delivering or producing goods, rendering services, or carrying out other activities that constitute the insitution's ongoing major or central operations or in generating revenues. Alternatively, expenses may be thought of as the costs of goods and services used to produce the educational services provided by the institution. Expenses result in a reduction of net assets.

2006-2013: Equity ratio (for-profit institutions)

Equity ratio for private-for profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Total liabilities (F3A02) is subtracted from total assets (F3A01). This amount is then divided by total assets (F3A01) Liabilities are debts and obligations of the institution owed to outsiders or claims or rights, expressed in monetary terms, of an institution’s creditors. Two types of liabilities are often defined, short-term and long term. Short-term liabilities are those that will be satisfied or paid within one year. Long-term liabilities are those which will not be satisfied within a year. Liabilities include: 1) accounts payable; 2) deferred revenues and refundable advances; 3) Post-retirement and post-employment obligations; 4) other accrued liabilities; 5) annuity and life income obligations and other amounts held for the benefits of others; 6) bonds, notes, and capital leases payable and other long-term debt, including current portions; 7) government grants refundable under student loan programs; and 8) other liabilities (those liabilities not falling in one or more of the above seven categories). The exact categories of liabilities that must be used are not specified and the above are examples only. Assets Physical items (tangible) or rights (intangible) that have value and that are owned by the institution. Assets are useful to the institution because they are a source of future services or because they can be used to secure future benefits. Assets are usually divided into two categories, current and fixed. Current assets are those that can be readily turned into cash. Fixed assets are those which cannot readily be turned into cash without disrupting the operation of the institution. Fixed assets include intangible assets consisting of certain nonmaterial rights and benefits of an institution, such as patents, copyrights, trademarks and goodwill. Categories of assets include the following items: 1) cash, cash equivalents, and temporary investments; 2) receivables (net of allowance for uncollectible accounts); 3) inventories, prepaid expenses, and deferred charges; 4) amounts held by trustees for construction and debt services; 5) long-term investments; 6) plant, property, and equipment; and 7) other assets (those assets not falling in one ore more of the above six categories). The exact categories of assets that must be used are not specified and the above are examples only.

2020-2023: Total equity

These variables are intended to collect the numerator and denominator used to calculate financial health ratios that compose the Composite Financial Index (CFI). Total equity has been carried forward from F3A03. This is calculated as the total assets minus total liabilities. Total equity is the sum of the following amounts: stock (common, preferred, treasury, etc.) and additional paid-in-capital; retained earnings; and accumulated other comprehensive income.

These funds are for meeting current operating expenses and not for specific projects or programs . The most common example is a state's general appropriation. Appropriations primarily to fund capital assets are classified as capital appropriations. Grants and contracts (revenues) Revenues from governmental agencies and nongovernmental parties that are for specific research projects, other types of programs , or for general institutional operations (if not government appropriations). Examples are research projects, training programs, student financial assistance, and similar activities for which amounts are received or expenses are reimbursable under the terms of a grant or contract, including amounts to cover both direct and indirect expenses. Includes Pell Grants and reimbursement for costs of administering federal financial aid programs. Grants and contracts should be classified to identify the governmental level - federal, state, or local - funding the grant or contract to the institution; grants and contracts from other sources are classified as nongovernmental grants and contracts. GASB institutions are required to classify in financial reports such grants and contracts as either operating or nonoperating.

2006-2013: Instruction expenses per FTE (for-profit institutions)

Instruction expenses per FTE enrollment for private-forprofit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Instruction expenses (F3E01) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Instruction - A functional expense category that includes expenses of the colleges, schools, departments, and other instructional divisions of the institution and expenses for departmental research and public service that are not separately budgeted. Includes general academic instruction, occupational and vocational instruction, community education, preparatory and adult basic education, and regular, special, and extension sessions. Also includes expenses for both credit and non-credit activities. Excludes expenses for academic administration where the primary function is administration (e.g., academic deans). Information technology expenses related to instructional activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources are included (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support). FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest, but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions’ FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. 2014-2015: Salaries, wages, and benefit expenses for instruction as a percent of total expenses for instruction (for-profit institutions)

Salaries, wages, and benefit expenses for instruction as a percent of total expenses for instruction for private for-profit-institutions is derived as follows: Salaries and wage expenses for instruction (F3E012) plus employee fringe benefit expenses for instruction (F3E013) divided by total expenses for instruction (F3E011) Instruction - A functional expense category that includes expenses of the colleges, schools, departments, and other instructional divisions of the institution and expenses for departmental research and public service that are not separately budgeted. Includes general academic instruction, occupational and vocational instruction, community education, preparatory and adult basic education, and regular, special, and extension sessions. Also includes expenses for both credit and non-credit activities. Excludes expenses for academic administration where the primary function is administration (e.g., academic deans). Information technology expenses related to instructional activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources are included (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support). Private for-profit institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest, but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. Salaries and wages are the amounts paid as compensation for services to all employees--faculty, staff, part time, full time, regular employees, and student employees. This includes regular or periodic payment to a person for the regular or periodic performance of work or a service and payment to a person for more sporadic performance of work or a service (overtime, extra compensation, summer compensation, bonuses, sick or annual leave, etc.). Employee Fringe Benefits include all employee fringe benefits such as retirement plans, social security taxes, medical/dental plans, guaranteed disability income protection plans, tuition plans, housing plans, unemployment compensation plans, group life insurance plans, worker’s compensation plans, other in-kind benefits with cash options, and all other costs of employee benefits. Total expenses include expenses from salaries, wages, employee fringe benefits,operations of plant, depreciation, interest and other expenses.

2014-2019: Revenues from investment return per FTE (for-profit institutions)

Revenues from investment return per FTE enrollment for private for-profit institutions is derived as follows: Investment return revenues (F3D05) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Investment return - Income from assets including dividends, interest earnings, royalties, rent, gains (losses) etc. Assets - Physical items (tangible) or rights (intangible) that have value and that are owned by the institution. Assets are useful to the institution because they are a source of future services or because they can be used to secure future benefits Interest - The price paid (or received) for the use of money over a period of time. Interest income is one component of investment income. Interest paid by the institution is interest expense. Gains - Increases in the institution's net assets from peripheral or incidental transactions. This is in contrast to revenues, which occur from the institution's ongoing major or central operations. Whether a transaction generates revenue or a gain depends on the relationship of the transaction to the institution's activities. For example, the sale of computers by a college store might be part of ongoing central activities, while the sale of surplus computers from administrative offices might be considered otherwise. Losses - Decreases in net assets from an organization's peripheral or incidental transactions and other events affecting the organization, other than those that result from expenses. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. 2014-2019: Public service expenses per FTE (for-profit institutions)

Public service expenses per FTE enrollment for private for-profit institutions is derived as follows: Public service expenses (F3E02B1) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Public service (expense) - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities established primarily to provide noninstructional services beneficial to individuals and groups external to the institution. Examples are conferences, institutes, general advisory service, reference bureaus, and similar services provided to particular sectors of the community. This function includes expenses for community services, cooperative extension services, and public broadcasting services. Also includes information technology expenses related to the public service activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support). Private for-profit institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest, but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). 2016-2023: Salaries and wages for academic support as a percent of total expenses for academic support (for-profit institutions)

Salaries, wages, and benefit expenses for academic support as a percent of total expenses for academic support for private for-profit institutions is derived as follows: Salaries and wage expenses for academic support (F3E03A2) divided by total expenses for academic support (F3E03A1). Academic support A functional expense category that includes expenses of activities and services that support the institution's primary missions of instruction, research, and public service. It includes the retention, preservation, and display of educational materials (for example, libraries, museums, and galleries); organized activities that provide support services to the academic functions of the institution (such as a demonstration school associated with a college of education or veterinary and dental clinics if their primary purpose is to support the instructional program); media such as audiovisual services; academic administration (including academic deans but not department chairpersons); and formally organized and separately budgeted academic personnel development and course and curriculum development expenses. Also included are information technology expenses related to academic support activities; if an institution does not separately budget and expense information technology resources, the costs associated with the three primary programs will be applied to this function and the remainder to institutional support. Under Private for-profit standards this includes actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. Under GASB standards this does not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest but may include depreciation expense. Salaries and wages are the amounts paid as compensation for services to all employees--faculty, staff, part time, full time, regular employees, and student employees. 2016-2023: Salaries and wages for research as a percent of total expenses for research (for-profit institutions)

Salaries, wages, and benefit expenses for research as a percent of total expenses for research for private for-profit-institutions using Private for-profit standards is derived as follows: Salaries and wage expenses for research (F3E02A2) divided by total expenses for research (F3E02A1). Research (expense) - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities specifically organized to produce research outcomes and commissioned by an agency either external to the institution or separately budgeted by an organizational unit within the institution. The category includes institutes and research centers, and individual and project research. This function does not include nonresearch sponsored programs (e.g., training programs). Also included are information technology expenses related to research activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support.) Private for-profit institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation & maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation & maintenance of plant or interest but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. Salaries and wages are the amounts paid as compensation for services to all employees--faculty, staff, part time, full time, regular employees, and student employees. This includes regular or periodic payment to a person for the regular or periodic performance of work or a service and payment to a person for more sporadic performance of work or a service (overtime, extra compensation, summer compensation, bonuses, sick or annual leave, etc.). Total expenses include expenses from salaries, wages, employee fringe benefits,operations of plant, depreciation, interest and other expenses.

2006-2013: Revenues from tuition and fees per FTE (for-profit institutions)

Revenues from tuition and fees per FTE enrollment for private for-profit institutions using FASB standards is derived as follows: Tuition and fees revenues (F3D01) divided by 12-month FTE enrollment (FTE12MN) Tuition and fees (revenues) (F3D01) - Revenues from all tuition and fees assessed against students (net of refunds and discounts and allowances) for educational purposes. If tuition or fees are remitted to the state as an offset to the state appropriation, the total of such tuition or fees are deducted from the total state appropriation and added to the total for tuition and fees. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). For more information see the variable description for 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment (info link) under frequently used\ 12-month enrollment.

2008: Method used to report 12-month enrollment for students enrolled in doctoral and professional programs

What method was used to report data on your institution's doctor's degrees and professional programs on the 12-month Enrollment component? 2007-08 represents the first year that 12-month enrollment for students enrolled in programs beyond the bachelor's level can be reported using the new postbaccalaureate degree classifications. Institutions had the choice of reporting 12-month enollment beyond the baccalaureate level using The new method which includes students enrolled in the following degree programs: Master's degree Doctor's degree - research/scholarship Doctor's degree - professional practice Doctor's degree - other Under the new methodology 12-month unduplicated headcount and instructional activity once reported in first-professional programs are now reported as graduates. Only the following are considered First-professional programs: Chiropractic (D.C., D.C.M.) (51.0101) Dentistry (D.D.S., D.M.D.) (51.0401) Medicine (M.D.) (51.1201) Optometry (O.D.) (51.1701) Osteopathic Medicine (D.O.) (51.1901) Pharmacy (Pharm.D.) (51.2001) Podiatry (D.P.M., D.P., Pod.D.) (51.2101) Veterinary Medicine (D.V.M.) (51.2401) Law (L.L.B., J.D.) (22.0101) Theology (M.Div., M.H.L./Rav, B.D., or Ordination) (39.0602 or 39.0605) The old postbaccalaureate degree classifications include: Master's degree Doctor's degree First-professional degree 2008-09, 12-month enrollment data will also have the same optional reporting methodology. In 2009-10, 12-month enrollment data will be reported using only the new methodology.

2009: Method used to report 12-month enrollment for students enrolled in doctoral and professional programs

What method was used to report data on your institution's doctor's degrees and professional programs on the 12-month Enrollment component? 2007-08 and 2008-09 are years that 12-month enrollment for students enrolled in programs beyond the bachelor's level can be reported using the new postbaccalaureate degree classifications. Institutions had the choice of reporting 12-month enollment beyond the baccalaureate level using The new method which includes students enrolled in the following degree programs: Master's degree Doctor's degree - research/scholarship Doctor's degree - professional practice Doctor's degree - other Under the new methodology 12-month unduplicated headcount and instructional activity once reported in first-professional programs are now reported as graduates. In 2009-10, 12-month enrollment data will be reported using only the new methodology.

2008: Method used to report degree levels offered - Institutional characteristics

What method will you use to report data on your institution's doctor's degrees and professional degrees on BOTH Institutional Characteristics and Fall Enrollment? The new method which includes: Master's degree Doctor's degree - research/scholarship Doctor's degree - professional practice Doctor's degree - other Under the new methodology all doctor's degree, first-professional degree, first-professional certificates and post-master's certificates levels are all reclassified into into the four graduate level categories listed above. Only the following are considered First-professional programs: Chiropractic (D.C., D.C.M.) (51.0101) Dentistry (D.D.S., D.M.D.) (51.0401) Medicine (M.D.) (51.1201) Optometry (O.D.) When using the new methodology studens in the above first-professional programs are now classified as graduate students. In 2009-10 Institutional characteristics and Fall 2009 enrollment data will be reported using only the new methodology.

2004: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2004 Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2004-05. 2006: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2005-06

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment FTE: Academic year 2005-06. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: For institutions using a quarter calendar system, One undegraduate FTE over 12-month period is equivalent to 45 credit hours or 900 contact hours. One graduate FTE over a 12-month period is equivalent to 36 credit hours. For institutions with a Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other academic year calendar system, one undegraduate FTE over 12-month period is equivalent to 30 credit hours or 900 contact hours. One graduate FTE over a 12-month period is equivalent to 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900. If institutions reported undergraduate or graduate FTE. The reported values were used in the generation of the total 12-month FTE. First-professional credit hours or first-professional FTE are not reported in IPEDS, so first-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall enrollment counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The total 12-month FTE (FTE12MN) was then generated by summing the estimated or reported undergraduate FTE, the estimated or reported graduate FTE and the estimated First-professional FTE.

2007: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2006-07

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2006-07. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2006-07 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall 2006 counts and applying this ratio to the 2006-07 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calender system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2008: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2007-08

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2007-08. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2007-08 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall 2007 counts and applying this ratio to the 2007-08 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2009: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2008-09

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2008-09. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2008-09 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the Fall 2008 counts and applying this ratio to the 2008-09 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2010: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2009-10

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2009-10. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2009-10 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the Fall 2008 counts and applying this ratio to the 2009-10 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2011: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2010-11

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2010-11. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2010-11 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the Fall 2008 counts and applying this ratio to the 2010-11 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2012: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2011-12

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2011-12. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2011-12 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the Fall 2008 counts and applying this ratio to the 2011-12 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2013: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2012-13

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2012-13. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2012-13 12-month Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the Fall 2008 counts and applying this ratio to the 2012-13 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2014: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2013-14

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2013-14. The number of FTE students is calculated based on the credit and/or contact hours reported by the institution on the IPEDS 12-month enrollment (E12) component and the institution's calendar system, as reported on the IC Header component. The following table indicates the level of instructional activity used to convert the credit and/or contact hours reported to an indicator of full-time equivalents (FTE students): - Quarter calendar system - Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) -Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours -Graduate 36 credit hours - Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system -Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) -Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours -Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900. Institutions have the choice of using the estimated FTE generated from the above formula or report their own FTE. The total 12-month FTE is generated by summing the estimated or reported undergraduate FTE and the estimated or reported graduate FTE and reported Doctor's Professional Practice FTE.

2015: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2014-15

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2014-15. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2014-15 12-month Enrollment component) plus the reported FTE of doctoral professional practice students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). Students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2016: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2015-16

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2015-16. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the reported FTE of doctoral professional practice students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). Students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2017: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2016-17

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2016-17. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the reported FTE of doctoral professional practice students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). Students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2018: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2017-18

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2017-18. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the reported FTE of doctoral professional practice students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). Students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2019: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: 2018-19

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2018-19. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the reported FTE of doctoral professional practice students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). Students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2020: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2019-20. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 12-month Enrollment component) plus the reported FTE of doctoral professional practice students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or clock hours). Students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 clock hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 clock hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of clock hours attempted by 900.

2021: 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment

12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2020-21. 2004-2023: Does institution have 15 or more full-time employees

Does institution have 15 or more full-time employees? FULL-TIME STAFF (EMPLOYEES) - The type of appointment at the snapshot date determines whether an employee is full time or part time. The employee's term of contract is not considered in making the determination of full or part time. Employees are counted only once even if employed multiple ways (e.g., a full-time employee who also teaches part time on a per course basis is counted only as full time). Also, a full-time employee who has an additional overload part-time appointment, contract, or course payment is counted as full time. (If Institution has less than 15 full-time employes the Fall staff survey is not applicable).

2004: Full-time equivalent enrollment: Fall 2004

Full-time equivalent enrollment This variable is derived from the enrollment by race/ethnicity section of the fall enrollment survey. The full-time equivalent of the institution's part-time enrollment is estimated and then added to the full-time enrollment of the institution. This formula has been used to produce the full-time equivalent enrollment that is published annually in the Digest of Education Statistics. The full-time equivalent of part-time enrollment is estimated by multiplying the part-time enrollment by factors that vary by control and level of institution and level of student. The following factors were used: Part-time undergraduate enrollment (line 22) Public 4-year .403543 Not-for-profit and for-profit, 4-year .392857 Public 2-year and <2year .335737 All other sectors .397058 First professional (line 23) Public 4-year .600000 Not-for-profit and for-profit, 4-year .545454 Graduate (line 25) Public 4-year .361702 Not-for-profit and for-profit, 4-year .382059 These factors were estimated using reported full-time equivalent of part-time enrollments from enrollment data collected in the Higher Education General Information System (HEGIS) 1967-1986.

2004: Graduation rate - Bachelor degree within 4 years, total

Note: Perturbation procedures were applied to these data to protect against disclosure of individual information. 4-year graduation rate of the subcohort of full-time, first-time students seeking a bachelor's or equivalent degree - 1998 Bachelors subcohort (4-year institutions) This rate is calculated as the total number of students completing a bachelor degree or equivalent within 4-years (100% of normal time) divided by the revised bachelor subcohort minus any allowable exclusions. The adjusted bachelor subcohort is defined by the variable GRRACE24 when GRTYPE=8 and the total students completing a bachelor's degree or equivalent within 4-years is GRRACE24 when GRTYPE=13(Table GR2004). BACHELOR'S OR EQUIVALENT DEGREE-SEEKING SUBCOHORT - In the GRS component of IPEDS, a cohort of students who were seeking a bachelor's or equivalent degree upon entry. Normal time to completion - The amount of time necessary for a student to complete all requirements for a degree or certificate according to the institution's catalog. This is typically 4 years (8 semesters or trimesters, or 12 quarters, excluding summer terms) for a bachelor's degree in a standard term-based institution Allowable exclusions - Those students who may be removed (deleted) from the GRS cohort according to the Student Right-to-Know legislation. These include students who died or were totally and permanently disabled; those who left school to serve in the armed forces; those who left to serve with a foreign aid service of the federal government, such as the Peace Corps; and those who left to serve on official church mission.

6-year graduation rate of the subcohort of full-time, first-time students seeking a bachelor's or equivalent degree - Men - 2006 Bachelors subcohort (4-year institutions) This rate is calculated as the total number of students completing a bachelor degree or equivalent within 6-years (150% of normal time) divided by the revised bachelor subcohort minus any allowable exclusions. The adjusted bachelor subcohort is defined by the variable GRTOTLM when GRTYPE=8 and the total students completing a bachelor's degree or equivalent within 6-years (150% of normal time) is GRTOTLM when GRTYPE=12(Table gr2012). BACHELOR'S OR EQUIVALENT DEGREE-SEEKING SUBCOHORT - In the GRS component of IPEDS, a cohort of students who were seeking a bachelor's or equivalent degree upon entry. Normal time to completion - The amount of time necessary for a student to complete all requirements for a degree or certificate according to the institution's catalog. This is typically 4 years (8 semesters or trimesters, or 12 quarters, excluding summer terms) for a bachelor's degree in a standard term-based institution Allowable exclusions - Those students who may be removed (deleted) from the GRS cohort according to the Student Right-to-Know legislation. These include students who died or were totally and permanently disabled; those who left school to serve in the armed forces; those who left to serve with a foreign aid service of the federal government, such as the Peace Corps; and those who left to serve on official church mission.
