2015: OM flag 1 - inconsistent data with full-time first-time cohort, 2-year institutions

This variable identifies 2-year institutions that reported inconsistent data for the 2007 first-time, full-time cohort on the 2015 OM survey as compared with the 2007 first-time, full-time cohort on the 2011 GR200 survey. These institutions reported the number of first-time, full-time students from the 2007 cohort who completed with an award at 6-years on the 2015 OM survey that was less than the number of first-time, full-time students from the 2007 cohort who completed with an award within 150% of normal time on the 2011 GR200 survey component. The number of completers with awards in OM was expected to be greater than (or equal to) the GR200 completers. The time period to complete an associate's degree and/or certificate is six and 8 years on OM, and the time period to complete an associate's degree and/or certificate is 150% and 200% of normal time to complete (maximum of 3 or 4years) on the GR200 survey, so completers reported on OM should be greater than completers reported on GR 200. 119 institutions were identified as having this inconsistency and were notified and had the opportunity to correct their data in the 2015-16 prior year revisions system. This variable identifies the 69 institutions that still have this inconsistency. The Data File Documentation (DFD) report describing these inconsistencies is available at http://nces.ed.gov/pubsearch/pubsinfo.asp?pubid=2018067

2015: OM flag 2 - inconsistent data with bachelor's cohort, 4-year institutions

This variable identifies 4-year institutions that reported inconsistent data for the 2007 first-time, full-time cohort on the 2015 OM survey as compared with the 2007 bachelor's degree seeking cohort reported on the 2015 GR200 survey and the 2013 GR150 survey. These institutions reported that they only had a bachelor's cohort and they also did not report any students receiving a degree below the bachelors on the 2013 GR150 survey. For institutions that only have a bachelor's cohort and do not grant associate degrees or certificates below the bachelor's, the number in the cohorts, the number of completers at 6-years and 8-years should be identical on both 2015 outcome measures and GR200 survey components. 477 institutions were identified as having this inconsistency and were notified and had the opportunity to correct their data in the 2015-16 prior year revision system. This variable identifies 171 institutions that are still not identical on both survey components. The Data File Documentation (DFD) report describing these inconsistencies is available at http://nces.ed.gov/pubsearch/pubsinfo.asp?pubid=2018067

2015: OM flag 3 - inconsistent data with full-time first-time cohort, 4-year institutions

This variable identifies 4-year institutions that reported inconsistent data for the 2007 first-time, full-time cohort on the 2015 OM survey as compared with the 2007 first-time, full-time cohort reported on the 2013 GR150 survey. These 4-year institutions reported that they had an other than bachelor's degree-seeking cohort on the 2013 GR150 survey. Also included were institutions reporting only a bachelor's cohort and did report students receiving a degree below the bachelors. For these institutions the full-time, first-time cohort should have been the same on both GR and OM and the number of completers reported on 2013 GR150 should be less than or equal to the number of completers reported on OM. The time period to complete an associate's degree and/or certificate is six years on the OM survey, and the time period to complete an associate's degree and/or certificate is 150% of normal time to complete (maximum of 3 years) on the GR150 survey, so completers reported on OM should be greater than completers reported on GR 150. 205 institutions were identified as having this inconsistency and were notified and had the opportunity to correct their data in the 2015-16 prior year revision system. This variable identifies 94 institutions that still have this inconsistency. 2015: OM flag 5 - no transfer-out data reported

This variable identifies institutions that reported having zero transfer-out students (i.e., subsequently enrolled in another institution) for all of the OM cohorts (first-time full-time, first-time part-time, non-first-time full-time, and non-first-time part-time) . This consistency check was done for institutions that reported enrollment unknown aggregated across all 4 cohorts was greater than or equal to 70. Institutions that did not report transfer-out students and reported transfer-out data on previous GR150 surveys are not identified using this variable. (See description for OMFLG6GR - OM flag 6). 857 institutions were identified as not reporting any transfer-out data and were notified and had the opportunity to correct their data in the 2015-16 prior year revision system. This variable identifies 460 institutions that still reported no transfer-out data for all OM cohorts. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2005: Public service expenses per FTE

Public service expenses per FTE Public service expenses is equal to F1C031 for public institutions using GASB34/35 F2E031 for private not-for-profit institutions using FASB standards. (Note some public institutions use the FASB standard). Public service expenses is then divided the Full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2004-05. Public service (expense) - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities established primarily to provide noninstructional services beneficial to individuals and groups external to the institution. Examples are conferences, institutes, general advisory service, reference bureaus, and similar services provided to particular sectors of the community. This function includes expenses for community services, cooperative extension services, and public broadcasting services. Also includes information technology expenses related to the public service activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support). FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest, but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2004-05. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2004 Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2004: Parent/child allocation method - Completions

The following methods were used to create the factors to allocate combined completions data across each separately identified parent and child institution: Student FTE – This is a proportion of student FTE for a specific school to the sum of the student FTE for all the schools (parent and children). This method uses data reported by the institutions on the 2004 Enrollment component. Faculty/staff FTE from the 2004 EAP component – This is a proportion of total staff FTE for a specific school to the sum of the total staff FTE for all the schools (parent and children). This method uses data reported by the institutions on the 2004 Employees by Assigned Position component. FTE is calculated by adding full-time staff to 1/3 of part-time staff. Equal shares determined by the number of schools in the reporting relationship – This is a proportion dividing 1 by the total number of schools (parent and children). Submitted by parent institution – This is a proportion submitted by the parent institution for all the schools (parent and children).

2004: Parent/child allocation method - Graduation Rates

The following methods were used to create the factors to allocate combined graduation rate data across each separately identified parent and child institution: Student FTE – This is a proportion of student FTE for a specific school to the sum of the student FTE for all the schools (parent and children). This method uses data reported by the institutions on the 2004 Enrollment component. Faculty/staff FTE from the 2004 EAP component – This is a proportion of total staff FTE for a specific school to the sum of the total staff FTE for all the schools (parent and children). This method uses data reported by the institutions on the 2004 Employees by Assigned Position component. FTE is calculated by adding full-time staff to 1/3 of part-time staff. Submitted by parent institution – This is a proportion submitted by the parent institution for all the schools (parent and children).

2004: Parent/child allocation method - Student Financial Aid

The following methods were used to create the factors to allocate combined student financial aid data across each separately identified parent and child institution: Student FTE – This is a proportion of student FTE for a specific school to the sum of the student FTE for all the schools (parent and children). This method uses data reported by the institutions on the 2004 Enrollment component. Faculty/staff FTE from the 2004 EAP component – This is a proportion of total staff FTE for a specific school to the sum of the total staff FTE for all the schools (parent and children). This method uses data reported by the institutions on the 2004 Employees by Assigned Position component. FTE is calculated by adding full-time staff to 1/3 of part-time staff. Equal shares determined by the number of schools in the reporting relationship – This is a proportion dividing 1 by the total number of schools (parent and children). Submitted by parent institution – This is a proportion submitted by the parent institution for all the schools (parent and children).

2004: Private gifts, grants, and contract revenues per FTE (FASB only)

Private gifts, grants, and contract revenues per FTE (FASB only) Private gifts, grants, and contract revenues is equal to F2D08 for public and private-not-for profit institutions using the FASB standards. Private gifts, grants, and contract reveues is then divided by the Full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04 Private gifts, grants and contracts (revenues) Revenues from private donors for which no legal consideration is involved and from private contracts for specific goods and services provided to the funder as stipulation for receipt of the funds. Includes only those gifts, grants, and contracts that are directly related to instruction, research, public service, or other institutional purposes. Includes monies received as a result of gifts, grants, or contracts from a foreign government. Also includes the estimated dollar amount of contributed services. 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2004 Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

A derived indicator to easily select institutions who are (1) currently in the IPEDS universe, (2) open to the public, (3) participant in Title IV program, and (4) primarily postsecondary institution. This variable is used to produce tables that are published in IPEDS First look reports(previously known as E.D. tabs) and tables in the Digest of Education Statistics. The "First Look" universe of institutitons includes Title IV primarily postsecondary and Title IV not primarily postsecondary institutions (PSET4FLG in (1,3)). Prior to IPEDS 2010 data collection the "First Look/E.D. Tabs" universe included Title IV primarily postsecondary institutions (PSET4FLG =1). It is derived as follows: If opeflag in (1 2 7) and pseflag=1 and openpubl=1 then pset4flg=1 If opeflag in (3 4 5 6) and pseflag=1 and openpubl=1 then pset4flg=2 If opeflag in (1 2 7) and pseflag=2 and openpubl=1 then pset4flg=3 If opeflag in (3 4 5 6) and pseflag=2 and openpubl=1 then pset4flg=4 If opeflag in (3 4 5 6) and pseflag=1 and openpubl=2 then pset4flg=6 If cyactive=2 then pset4flg=9 The United States Air Force, Naval and Military Academies are also included as PSET4FLG=1, even though they are opeflag=3, deferment only. 2004: Revision status - Completions component Identifies institutions that submitted revised 2003-04 completions data using the 2004-05 Prior Year Revision system. The 2004-05 Revision system was conducted during the 2005-06 data collection year. During this time period institutions could have contacted the IPEDS help desk and ask that their data be unlocked so that they can submit revised data. All revised data were then remigrated to the data base. Individual data cells have not been flagged as revised. This variable only identifies that a revision to the original completions data has been made. Note: There are a few cases where the revised flag indicates that revised data were submitted but no data cells changed. In this case the data were unlocked by the Help desk and then relocked without any changes made by the institution.

2004: Revision status - Student Financial Aid component

Identifies institutions that submitted revised 2003-04 Student Financial Aid data using the 2004-05 Prior Year Revision system. The 2004-05 Revision system was conducted during the 2005-06 data collection year. During this time period institutions could have contacted the IPEDS help desk and ask that their data be unlocked so that they can submit revised data. All revised data were then remigrated to the data base. Individual data cells have not been flagged as revised. This variable only identifies that a revision to the original data was made. Note: There are a few cases where the revised flag indicates that revised data were submitted but no data cells changed. In this case the data were unlocked by the Help desk and then relocked without any changes made by the institution.

2004-2006, 2008: Reporting method (academic year or program)

Reporting method identifies institutions as academic year or program reporters. Academic year reporters operate on standard academic terms (semester, quarter, trimester, 4-1-4 or other academic calendar system). Program reporters operate on other calendar systems that differ by program or operate on a continuous basis(e.g., every 2 weeks, monthly or other period). Academic year reporters provide Graduation Rates data based on a fall cohort and student charges based on a full academic year. Program reporters provide Graduation Rates data based on a full-year cohort and student charges data are by program. ACADEMIC YEAR - The period of time generally extending from September to June; usually equated to 2 semesters or trimesters, 3 quarters, or the period covered by a 4-1-4 calendar system. FALL COHORT - The group of students entering in the fall term established for tracking purposes. For the Graduation Rates component, this includes all students who enter an institution as full-time, first-time degree or certificate-seeking undergraduate students during the fall term of a given year. FULL-YEAR COHORT - The group of students entering at any time during the 12-month period September 1 through August 31 that is established for tracking and reporting Graduation Rate (GRS) data for institutions that primarily offer occupational programs of varying lengths. Students must be full time and first time to be considered in the cohort.

2007: Reporting method (academic year or program)

Reporting method identifies institutions as academic year or program reporters. 2009, 2011-2023: Reporting method for student charges, graduation rates, retention rates and student financial aid

Reporting method identifies how institutions report student charges (full academic year or by program) and the type of cohort (fall or full-year) used to report graduation rate, retention rate and student financial aid data. Institutions with standard academic terms (semester, quarter, trimester or 4-1-4 - CALSYS in (1,2,3,4)) report student charges for the full academic year and report graduation rate, retention rate and student financial aid data for a FALL cohort. Institutions with other academic calendar systems (CALYSYS=5) report student charges for the full academic year and report graduation rate, retention rate and student financial aid for a FULL-YEAR cohort. Other academic year is a category used to describe "non-traditional" calendar systems at 4-year and 2-year degree-granting institutions. These can include schools that offer primarily on-line courses or "one course at a time." Institutions with calendar systems that differ by program or operate on a continuous basis (e.g., every 2 weeks, monthly or other period - CALSYS in (6,7)) report student charges by program for the entire length of program and report graduation rate, retention rate and student financial aid for a FULL-YEAR cohort. 2007: Full-time fall 2006 cohort

Full-time cohort includes full-time first-time degree/certificate seeking students enrolled at the institution in the fall of the prior year (including those enrolled for the first time the preceding summer term and those whose intent was not known upon entry to the institution). The full-time cohort for 4-year institutions should only include bachelor degree-seeking students. The time period used for reporting cohort numbers should be the official fall reporting date of the institution or October 15 for institutions that have standard academic calender systems (semester, quarter, trimester or 4-1-4 plan). For institutions that enroll students continuously during the year and use a full-year cohort, the cohort is based on any student enrolled during the period August 1 through October 31. The student status (full- or part-time) should be based on the prior year's fall status, even if this has changed by the current year (e.g., if a student has gone from part-time to full-time, report them as part of the part-time cohort).

Research (expense) - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities specifically organized to produce research outcomes and commissioned by an agency either external to the institution or separately budgeted by an organizational unit within the institution. The category includes institutes and research centers, and individual and project research. This function does not include nonresearch sponsored programs (e.g., training programs). Also included are information technology expenses related to research activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources (otherwise these expenses are included in academic support.) FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation & maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation & maintenance of plant or interest but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2004-05. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2004 Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2004: State and local government appropriation revenues per FTE (GASB only)

State and local government appropriation revenues per FTE is derived for public institutions (GASB) only State and local government appropriations is equal to: F1B11 + F1B12 for public institutions using the new GASB 34/35 standards. State and local government appropriations is then divided by the Full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04. This variable is not applicable for private not-for-profit and for-profit institutions. State appropriations are amounts received by the institution through acts of a state legislative body, except grants and contracts and capital appropriations. Funds reported in this category are for meeting current operating expenses, not for specific projects or programs. Local appropriations, education district taxes, and similar support - Local appropriations are government appropriations made by a governmental entity below the state level. Education district taxes include all tax revenues assessed directly by an institution or on behalf of an institution when the institution will receive the exact amount collected. These revenues also include similar revenues that result from actions of local governments or citizens (such as through a referendum) that result in receipt by the institution of revenues based on collections of other taxes or resources (sales taxes, gambling taxes, etc.). 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions' FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2004 Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

Student services expenses is then divided by the Full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04 Student services (expenditures) (used prior to GASB 34/35) (B063) - Funds expended for admissions, registrar activities, and activities whose primary purpose is to contribute to students' emotional and physical well-being and to their intellectual, cultural, and social development outside the context of the formal instructional program. Examples are career guidance, counseling, financial aid administration, and student health services (except when operated as a self-supporting auxiliary enterprise). Student services (expenses) (F1C061 F2E051) A functional expense category that includes expenses for admissions, registrar activities, and activities whose primary purpose is to contribute to students emotional and physical well - being and to their intellectual, cultural, and social development outside the context of the formal instructional program. Examples include student activities, cultural events, student newspapers, intramural athletics, student organizations, supplemental instruction outside the normal administration, and student records. Intercollegiate athletics and student health services may also be included except when operated as self - supporting auxiliary enterprises. Also may include information technology expenses related to student service activities if the institution separately budgets and expenses information technology resources(otherwise these expenses are included in institutional support.) FASB institutions include actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. GASB institutions do not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest but may, as an option, distribute depreciation expense. 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions’ FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2004 Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

Definitions by release year

2008-2023: Student-to-faculty ratio

Student-to-faculty ratio - Total FTE students not in graduate or professional programs divided by total FTE instructional staff not teaching in graduate or professional programs. Total FTE students is equal to the number of full-time students plus 1/3 the number of part-time students (Fall enrollment component). Graduate or first-professional students enrolled in graduate or professional programs such as medicine, law, veterinary, dentistry, social work, or public health, in which faculty teach virtually only graduate-level students (often referred to as "stand-alone" or "independent" programs) are excluded from both full-time and part-time counts. Total FTE instructional staff is equal to the number of full-time instructional staff to 1/3 the number of part-time instructional staff (Human Resource Component, EAP section). Instructional staff include employees whose primary function/occupational activity is primarily instruction or instruction/research/public service and are not medical school employees. Instructional staff teaching in graduate or professional programs such as medicine, law, veterinary, dentistry, social work, or public health, in which faculty teach virtually only graduate-level students (often referred to as "stand-alone" or "independent" programs) are excluded from both full-time and part-time counts.

Academic support expenses per FTE

Storage: double | Stata name: SUPPRFTE | Observed years: 2004-2005 | Nulls: 134,322

Definitions by release year

2004: Academic support expenses per FTE

Academic support expenses per FTE is derived for public and private not-for-profit institutions as follows: Academic support expenses is equal to: F1C051 for public institutions using the new GASB 34/35 standards F2E041 for public and private-not-for profit institutions using the FASB standards. Academic support expenses is then divided by the Full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04 This variable is not applicable for private for-profit institutions because academic support expenses are not collected separately for private for-profit institutions. Academic support A functional expense category that includes expenses of activities and services that support the institution's primary missions of instruction, research, and public service. It includes the retention, preservation, and display of educational materials (for example, libraries, museums, and galleries); organized activities that provide support services to the academic functions of the institution (such as a demonstration school associated with a college of education or veterinary and dental clinics if their primary purpose is to support the instructional program); media such as audiovisual services; academic administration (including academic deans but not department chairpersons); and formally organized and separately budgeted academic personnel development and course and curriculum development expenses. Also included are information technology expenses related to academic support activities; if an institution does not separately budget and expense information technology resources, the costs associated with the three primary programs will be applied to this function and the remainder to institutional support. Under FASB standards this includes actual or allocated costs for operation and maintenance of plant, interest, and depreciation. Under GASB standards this does not include operation and maintenance of plant or interest but may include depreciation expense. 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions’ FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2004 Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.

2004: Does institution have a tenure system

Does institution have a tenure system? This variable is derived so that users can disaggregate those employees that are nontenured not on tenure track from those employees that are in an institution with no tenure system. Both EAP and Fall Staff components collect these data using 1 data field which makes it very difficult to produce tables on tenure. It is assumed that if all employees are reported in the nontenured not on track/no tenure system column/row, then the institution has no tenure system. If the institution reports at least 1 employee as tenured or nontenured, on tenure track then the institution has a tenure system. This variable can be used in the IPEDS DAS to produce tables on tenure status. See derivation below: All employees, Tenured faculty (EAPTOT,EAPRECTP= 1102) > 0 or All employees, Non-tenured faculty, on tenure track (EAPTOT,EAPRECTP=1103) > 0 then TENURSYS=1 (Has tenure system). ELSE TENURSYS=0 (No tenure system)

See derivation below: All employees, Tenured faculty (EAPTOT,EAPRECTP= 1102) > 0 or All employees, Non-tenured faculty, on tenure track (EAPTOT,EAPRECTP=1103) > 0 then TENURSYS=1 (Has tenure system). ELSE TENURSYS=0 (No tenure system)

2013-2014: Does institution have a tenure system

2004: Transfer-out rate, total cohort

Note: Perturbation procedures were applied to these data to protect against disclosure of individual information. Transfer-out rate of first-time, full-time degree or certificate-seeking students - 1998 cohort (4-year institutions) and 2001 cohort (less-than-4-year institutions). Transfer-out rate Total number of students who are known to have transferred out of the reporting institution within 150% of normal time to completion divided by the revised cohort minus allowable exclusions. For 4-year institutions the adjusted cohort is defined by the variable GRRACE24 when GRTYPE=2 and the total tranfers within 150% of normal time is GRRACE24 when GRTYPE=4. GRTYPE=2 and 4 include both the bachelor's or equivalent degree/certificate-seeking subcohort and the other degree/certificate-seeking subcohort (Table GR2004). For 2-year institutions the adjusted cohort is defined by the variable GRRACE24 when GRTYPE=29 and the total transfers within 150% of normal time is GRRACE24 when GRTYPE=33 (Table GR2004). For less-than-2-year institutions the adjusted cohort defined by the variable LINE_50 and the total transfers within 150% of normal time is LINE_30 (Table GR2004_L2) Normal time to completion - The amount of time necessary for a student to complete all requirements for a degree or certificate according to the institution's catalog. This is typically 4 years (8 semesters or trimesters, or 12 quarters, excluding summer terms) for a bachelor's degree in a standard term-based institution Allowable exclusions - Those students who may be removed (deleted) from the GRS cohort according to the Student Right-to-Know legislation. These include students who died or were totally and permanently disabled; those who left school to serve in the armed forces; those who left to serve with a foreign aid service of the federal government, such as the Peace Corps; and those who left to serve on official church mission. A transfer-out student is a student who has not completed or graduated from the program in which he or she was enrolled, but who has subsequently enrolled at another eligible institution in any program for which the reporting institution provided substantial preparation.

2004: Tuition and fee revenues per FTE

Tuition and fees revenues per FTE is derived for all institutions as follows: Tuition and fees revenues is equal to: F1B01 for public institutions using the new GASB 34/35 standards F2D01 for private-not-for profit institutions using the FASB standards. (Note some public institutions use the FASB standard). F3D01 for private for-profit institutions. If tuition or fees are remitted to the state as an offset to the state appropriation, the total of such tuition or fees are deducted from the total state appropriation and added to the total for tuition and fees. 12-month full-time equivalent enrollment: Academic year 2003-04. The full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment used in this report is the sum of the institutions’ FTE undergraduate enrollment and FTE graduate enrollment (as calculated from or reported on the 2004 Enrollment component) plus the estimated FTE of first-professional students. Undergraduate and graduate FTE are estimated using 12-month instructional activity (credit and/or contact hours). First-professional FTE is estimated by calculating the ratio of full-time to part-time first-professional students from the fall counts (part A) and applying this ratio to the 12-month unduplicated headcount of first-professional students. The estimated number of full-time students is added to one-third of the estimated number of part-time students. The calculation of FTE undergraduate and graduates is as follows: Quarter calendar system Enrollment level (One FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 45 credit hours, 900 contact hours Graduate 36 credit hours Semester/trimester/4-1-4 plan/other calendar system Enrollment level (one FTE over 12-month period) Undergraduate 30 credit hours 900 contact hours Graduate 24 credit hours For institutions with continuous enrollment programs, FTE is determined by dividing the number of contact hours attempted by 900.
